

Cameron Adams is overjoyed to be stage manager for her final show at Hume-Fogg. Cameron joined tech her freshman year, working both as run crew and spotlight operator before becoming stage manager the end of her sophomore year. She has also enjoyed working tech for The Theater Bug and Street Theatre. She sends love and thanks to the lifelong friends made through the HFA theatre department, Mr. Bruce for giving her the opportunity to work with this phenomenal cast, her tech crew family, and finally her family for the constant love and support.

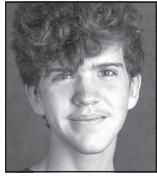

Otis Alley is excited and honored to be playing Harv Fremont in Hume-Fogg's production of Curtains. This is his second musical at Hume-Fogg, his first being High School Musical. Otis is a member of Hume-Fogg's concert choir. He is elated to be going back on stage and would like to thank his parents and siblings for their support and flying in to see the shows. He would also like to thank Mr. Bruce, Ms. Forbis and Ms. Atha for giving him the opportunity to be on stage and grow as an actor, singer and dancer.

Bo Bryan is honored to portray Lieutenant Frank Cioffi in this production of Curtains. This will be his third and final performance on the Hume-Fogg stage, having previously played Gomez Addams in The Addams Family and Troy Bolton in High School Musical. He thanks Mr. Bruce, Ms. Forbis, Ms. Atha, the Kleinfelters and his family for their guidance and support. He also acknowledges his friends, especially his fellow seniors, whose encouragement and love have made him both a better performer and a better person. Thank you for the music and memories!

Zoe Carroll is extremely excited to be dance captain and an ensemble member in this production of Curtains. This is Zoe's third show on the HFA stage, and she is so grateful for the friendships she has in the cast. Credits include HFA's Addams Family and High School Musical plus Tuck Everlasting, Annie, Newsies and assistant choreographer for Matilda outside of HFA. She is a member of the HFA Blue Notes show choir and part of the Harding Academy Dance family. Zoe is thrilled for this opportunity and thanks Ms. Forbis, Mr. Bruce and Ms. Atha!

Jacob Contos is excited to be a part of Curtains in the role of Roy Stetson in the Robbin' Hood cast. He recently played a jock/skater in High School Musical at Hume-Fogg. Jacob would like to thank Mr. Bruce, Ms. Forbis and Ms. Atha for the opportunity to continue making memories in the Hume-Fogg Theatre department along with his family for constantly supporting his pursuits.

Parker Denton is honored to be playing the role of Christopher Belling in Curtains. This is Parker's senior year at Hume-Fogg and his fifth show. He would like to thank Mr. Bruce, Ms. Forbis and Ms. Atha for giving him this incredible opportunity and for devoting all of their time and energy to make sure every show is amazing. He would also like to thank his family for always supporting him in everything he does and for encouraging him to pursue his passion for theatre. He dedicates his performance to Nonnie.

Donovan Forsyth is delighted to be playing Aaron Fox in Hume Fogg's production of Curtains. His past credits include Ryan Evans in High School Musical, Kristoff in Frozen, and Lucas Beinecke in The Addams Family. In addition to the musicals, he is also a proud member of the Hume Fogg Blue Notes show choir. He would like to thank his Mom for the support as well as Mr. Bruce, Ms. Forbis, and Ms. Atha for the amazing opportunity.

Dominick Giron is extremely excited to be an ensemble member in the Hume-Fogg Theatre production of Curtains. This is his first play at Hume-Fogg, and he is excited to perform on the HFA stage for the first time. Although musical theatre was never something he was interested in until now, he is enjoying himself and would love to be in another musical in the future. He would like to thank his friends and family for their support and Mr. Bruce and Ms. Forbis for letting him be a part of this amazing cast.

Kiara Harper is thrilled to be portraying Bambi Bernet in this production of Curtains. Past HFA credits include Princess Ying Yaowalak in The King and I, ensemble in Chicago, Mamma Mia, The Drowsy Chaperone, Night of Hope, The Addams Family and, most recently, Martha Cox in High School Musical. Kiara is a proud member of the HFA Blue Notes show choir and HFA concert choir. She thanks Mr. Bruce, Ms. Forbis and Ms. Atha for all they have done for her over the years. Kiara is so thankful to be part of the HFA theatre family.

Xavier Harper is a sophomore at Hume-Fogg and is honored to play Sidney Bernstein in Curtains. Past HFA productions include The King and I (Prince Chulalongkorn), Big Fish (Young Will) and The Addams Family. He credits Mr. Bruce, Ms. Forbis and Ms. Atha with having had a lasting influence on his life and is excited to continue learning from them, as well as the very talented students present at Hume-Fogg. He thanks them for this opportunity and their encouragement, along with his family for all that they do to support him.

Fiona Kiernon is excited to be a part of the Hume-Fogg Theatre production of Curtains as Joanie Harmon. She has been involved in Hume-Fogg's productions of The Addams Family and High School Musical as an ensemble member. Fiona is also a member of Hume-Fogg's concert choir. She would like to thank her family for their continuous love and support and Mr. Bruce and Ms. Forbis for giving her the opportunity to be a part of this amazing cast.

Charlotte Lefkowitz is beyond overjoyed to be working on this incredible show as assistant stage manager with such an amazing company! She previously worked on backstage crew for High School Musical at Hume-Fogg and is very excited to be doing tech crew throughout these next years of high school. She would like to thank Cameron Adams, Mr. Bruce, Ms. Atha and the cast and crew for their nonstop hard work and dedication to the show.

Annie Mitchell is honored to play Georgia Hendricks in her last HFA musical. Credits include ensemble in Chicago, Mamma Mia!, The Drowsy Chaperone and The Addams Family, and Sharpay in High School Musical. Also a member of the HFA Blue Notes show choir, Annie is blessed to have had a supportive and loving theatre community – her chosen family – for the past four years. She is thankful for these people who have shaped her love for theatre and the person she is today: Mr. Bruce, Ms. Forbis, Ms. Atha, Mrs. Sharp, her mom, dad, Wesley and Hamma.

Wesley Mitchell is honored to be cast as Sasha in HFA's production of Curtains! His theater experience in middle school includes Flounder in The Little Mermaid, Lumiere in Beauty and the Beast, and Kurt in The Sound of Music. Wesley plays the bassoon in the Hume-Fogg concert band. He thanks his sister for being a great role model and his parents for supporting him along the way. Other hobbies include rock climbing, mountain biking, playing video games and Rubik's cubing. He sends a shout-out to Dominick for participating in his first show!

Alayna Nsengiyumva is thrilled to be playing Arlene Barrauca in Curtains. This is her second show with Hume-Fogg. After having participated in The Addams Family, she's excited to be back on the stage. Apart from theatre, she is also a member of the HFA volleyball team, UNICEF and SDA. She gives a big thanks to Mr. Bruce, Ms. Atha and Ms. Forbis for the opportunity to share the stage with this amazing group of people.

Hannah Parker is very excited to be a member of the ensemble in Hume-Fogg's Production of Curtains. Hannah was previously in the ensemble in High School Musical. She is excited to continue with theatre throughout high school, and she would like to thank Mr. Bruce and Ms. Forbis for giving her the opportunity to be a part of the Hume-Fogg theatre community.

Jack Perry is honored to play Daryl Grady in his final performance on the HFA stage. His first role was Underling in The Drowsy Chaperone. He has since performed in The Addams Family as Lurch and in High School Musical as Coach Bolton. Jack is a member of the Hume-Fogg Blue Notes show choir. He is excited and ready to enjoy this bittersweet performance of his last show. He thanks Mr. Bruce, Ms. Forbis, Ms. Atha, Mr. and Mrs. Kleinfelter and his family for their continued support. He is forever grateful for the opportunities and memories.

Caroline Randolph is so honored to be a part of HFA's production of Curtains! This is her second HFA musical, and she is very excited for more in the future. She is also a member of the concert choir at Hume-Fogg. Being in HFA theatre arts programs has given her some of the best high school experiences thus far. She'd like to thank her mom and dad for convincing her to audition in the first place. Also, a big thanks to Liv for supporting her through all of it.

Ava Rogers is so excited to be in the Robbin' Hood cast in Curtains as Jane Selter. Musical theatre has always been a big part of her life as she has performed in 10 Harding Academy productions throughout her time there in elementary and middle school. At Hume-Fogg, she has also been a part of Night of Hope, The Addams Family and High School Musical. She would like to thank Mr. Bruce, Ms. Forbis and Ms. Atha for letting her be involved in such an amazing program.

Victoria Ryan is delighted to be a part of Hume-Fogg's production of Curtains as a member of the ensemble. She has previously starred as Gabriella Montez in High School Musical and was in the ensemble of The Addams Family. She spent her first years of high school as a violinist in the Hume-Fogg orchestra and is now thrilled to be involved in the theatre department. Victoria would like to thank Mr. Bruce, Ms. Forbis and Ms. Atha for allowing her the chance to perform and thrive with HFA Theatre as she performs in her final musical.

Sarayah Shaw is thrilled to be portraying Nikki Harris in this production of Curtains. This is her second show on the HFA stage, the first being in the ensemble of The Addams Family. She is excited to be back. Sarayah is a proud member of the Hume-Fogg Blue Notes show choir as well as the HFA girls soccer team. In her free time, Sarayah enjoys singing, playing soccer and spending time with family and friends. She thanks Mr. Bruce and Ms. Forbis for giving her the opportunity to perform with this talented cast and bring this amazing show to life!

Kendall Smith is over the moon to be portraying Randy Dexter in Hume-Fogg's production of Curtains! Credits include Selfie The Musical at the Theater Bug, Uncle Fester in HFA's The Addams Family and most recently Jack Scott in HFA's High School Musical. He is taking in all of the joys of theatre for his final show on the HFA stage. Kendall is incredibly grateful to Mr. Bruce and Ms. Forbis for giving him a stage to shine on and a community to be a part of. Who's to say what Kendall will do next? This is the Velvet Fog signing off one final time.

Alex Spivak is proud to be a part of the Hume-Fogg Theatre production of Curtains as an ensemble member. This is his second show with Hume-Fogg, previously performing in the ensemble of HFA's High School Musical. Performing has always been a large part of his life as both a dancer and an actor. Outside of theatre, Alex enjoys track, art and Dr. Pepper. He thanks Mr. Bruce, Ms. Forbis and Ms. Atha for letting him continue to be on stage at Hume-Fogg.

Eva Tatum is elated to be playing Carmen Bernstein in Hume-Fogg's production of Curtains. Past Hume-Fogg credits include Night of Hope, an ancestor in The Addams Family and Ms. Darbus in High School Musical. She also performs in the HFA show choir and plays french horn in the HFA wind ensemble. Eva thanks Mr. Bruce, Ms. Forbis and Ms. Atha for this wonderful opportunity and her friends and family for supporting her wholeheartedly. She is so grateful to be a part of this fabulous cast and cannot wait for future shows!

Park Tatum is incredibly excited to perform as Brick Hawvermale in Hume-Fogg's production of Curtains. This is Park's second show on the HFA stage, his first being High School Musical. Park is a proud member of the Hume-Fogg concert choir. In his free time, Park likes to hang out with friends, play video games and sing. He would like to thank Mr. Bruce, Ms. Forbis and Ms. Atha for the opportunity, and his friends and family for the support. He is honored to be a part of the Hume-Fogg theatre family.

Mason Thomas is absolutely thrilled is to be taking on the role of Detective O'Farrell in Hume-Fogg's production of Curtains! In the last Hume-Fogg production, High School Musical, Mason was a member of the ensemble although he may be better known as James the earthworm. He would like to thank his entire family for supporting him in this endeavor as well as Mr. Bruce and Ms. Forbis for allowing him to be in this wonderful production. Mason hopes to continue his musical theatre endeavors in the coming years.

Paige Tyler is excited to play Marjorie Cook in Hume-Fogg's production of Curtains, her second show at HFA. Paige is a member of the Hume-Fogg Blue Notes show choir. She has previously danced at Bellevue Dance Center, and she attends Stagedoor Manor. She thanks Ms. Forbis and Mr. Bruce for letting her have this opportunity and for teaching her so much through the process. She also thanks her supportive family and sister for encouraging her to do musical theatre throughout her childhood and into high school.

Owen Wakefield is extremely excited to portray Oscar Shapiro in the Hume-Fogg production of Curtains. He has been in the past two plays, as a member of the ensemble in The Addams Family and as Ripper in High School Musical. Owen is grateful for Ms. Forbis and Mr. Bruce for allowing him to partake in such a fun experience, and for his family and friends for coming to support him in it.

Malik Waters is delighted to be playing Bobby Pepper in this production of Curtains. He is very appreciative of Mr. Bruce, Ms. Forbis and Ms. Atha for giving him this opportunity and for believing in him to perform this role. Other HFA credits include Chad Danforth in High School Musical, Aldolpho in The Drowsy Chaperone and ensemble in Mamma Mia! Malik enjoys listening to music and hanging out with his friends. As a senior, he is sad to say goodbye to this show and this program, but he is thankful for the memories he has made along the way.

Bethany Whitney is thrilled to be playing THE Jessica Cranshaw in Curtains at Hume-Fogg. This is her fourth and final show on stage with the Hume-Fogg Theatre. Outside of theatre, Bethany is a member of the HFA Blue Notes show choir and vice president of the Tennessee Junior Classical League. She also studies music privately through Belmont Academy. Bethany thanks Mr. Bruce, Ms. Forbis and Ms. Atha for everything they do for the theatre department as well as the entire cast and crew for their constant love and friendship. <3 xoxo
